1. Pendahuluan

1.1. Latar Belakang

Keberagaman budaya dan perkembangan zaman yang semakin hari semakin besar membuat budaya-budaya asing masuk tanpa ada batasan yang jelas, sehingga membuat masyarakat dituntut secara tidak langsung untuk memerlukan pemahaman, pemikiran dan ilmu yang luas dalam memfilterisasi segala macam hal yang ada. Hal ini dikarena, jika kita tidak dapat melakukan filterisasi atau membedakan suatu hal yang sepatutnya dan tidak sepatutnya dicontoh sesuai dengan norma yang selama ini kita patuhi dan teladani, maka akan menjadi suatu gejala hukum yang nantinya akan menghasilkan akibat hukum.

Salah satu yang menjadi isu pembicaraan atau yang mulai beredar dalam masyarakat yaitu Lesbi, Gay, Biseksual, dan Transgender atau yang bisa disingkat LGBT. Hal ini secara tidak langsung termasuk kepada perilaku menyimpang, penyimpangan sosial ini pun terjadi ketika adanya perubahan pada nilai-nilai norma dan sosial masyarakat kepada arah yang tidak wajar. Seperti berubahnya orientasi ketertarikan seorang pria, yang secara alamiah ia akan tertarik pada “wanita” namun kini menjadi tertarik kepada sesama jenis begitupun sebaliknya. Pernyataan yang menyatakan bahwa dirinya adalah seorang wanita padahal secara fisik ia adalah seorang pria, ini menimbulkan krisis identitas yang secara tidak langsung merupakan suatu penyimpangan sosial.

Adanya LGBT sangat bertentangan dengan landasan negara Indonesia, yaitu Pancasila. Nilai-nilai dan norma yang ada pada pancasila menjadi rusak dengan keberadaan LGBT, sebagaimana contoh dalam sila pertama yang berbunyi: “Ketuhanan Yang Maha Esa.” Hal ini didasarkan karena manusia yang merupakan ciptaan tuhan yang telah diciptakan sebaik-baik rupa, dengan identitas yang jelas antara pria dan wanita, dan diciptakan berpasang-pasangan sejak awal mula manusia itu diciptakan, akan tetapi hal ini dilanggar sehingga terjadi penyimpangan dengan adanya keberadaan LGBT. Selanjutnya pada Undang-Undang Negara Republik Indonesia Tahun 1945 yang merupakan landasan fondasi hukum di Indonesia dimana terdapat kata: “DENGAN RAHMAT TUHAN YANG MAHA ESA.”¹ Dalam hal ini adanya penekanan bahwasanya Indonesia merupakan negara yang berlandaskan kepada Tuhan dalam menjalankan negaranya, pernyataan ini diiringi oleh Pasal 29 ayat (1) yang berbunyi: “Negara berdasar Ketuhanan Yang Maha Esa,” terjadinya penekanan moral ketuhanan dalam fondasi hukum di Indonesia. Berdasarkan landasan hukum dapat disimpulkan bahwa secara tidak langsung baik itu negara dan masyarakat Indonesia berpegang teguh pada aturan agama yang dianut oleh setiap orang menurut kepercayaannya masing-masing.

Selain itu, LGBT juga memberikan dampak pada kesehatan manusia. Menurut laporan Badan Narkotika Nasional (BNN), sepanjang 2022 ada 52.955 kasus infeksi Human Immunodeficiency Virus atau biasa kita sebut HIV. Dalam hasil penelitian tersebut terdapat sebanyak 27,54% atau 14.589 kasus HIV itu berkaitan dengan faktor risiko homoseksual². Berdasarkan JSA (Jurnal Sosiologi Andalas): Volume 8, No. 2 (Oktober) 2022, wacana bahwa maksiat adalah sumber bencana alam sering diulang-ulang oleh para politisi. Salah satu politisi Nasrul Abit mengungkapkan sebanyak 18000 orang pelaku LGBT di Sumatera Barat, hal ini menjadi angka terbanyak di Indonesia.³ Ia berpendapat bahwa perilaku LGBT tidaklah sesuai dengan budaya Minangkabau dan berisiko terhadap resiko penularan HIV/ AIDS. Hubungan LGBT menjerumuskan pada penyimpangan hubungan seksual, terjadinya penyimpangan seksual ini menyebabkan hadirnya penyakit kelamin akibat perilaku seksual yang bebas dan tak wajar yang menyebabkan terjadinya infeksi yang parah pada alat kelamin dan sejauh ini belum ada obat yang secara signifikan dapat menyembuhkan berbagai penyakit yang disebabkan oleh hubungan seksual yang bebas.

1.2. Rumusan Masalah

1. Bagaimana pengaturan serta efektivitas pelaksanaan aturan tersebut terkait permasalahan Lesbian, Gay, Biseksual, Transgender (LGBT) di Sumatera Barat?
2. Bagaimana upaya Pemerintah Daerah kota Padang dalam mengatasi Kasus Lesbian, Gay, Biseksual, Transgender (LGBT) yang marak terjadi di Sumatera Barat?

2. Pembahasan

2.1. Aturan hukum terkait permasalahan LGBT dan norma hukum yang ada di tengah masyarakat Sumatera Barat

Berdasarkan Pasal 1 Deklarasi Universal Hak Asasi Manusia menyatakan bahwa, “Seluruh manusia dilahirkan secara bebas dan memiliki persamaan dalam martabat dan hak”.⁴ Selanjutnya dalam Laporan Tahunan United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights tentang Discriminatory laws and practices and acts of violence against individuals based on their sexual orientation and gender identity dinyatakan bahwa setiap orang disini termasuk orang-orang lesbian, gay, bisexual dan transgender.⁵ Dalam pemenuhan hak asasi manusia tentu saja tidak melarang atau membatasi terkait hak-hak kemanusiaan bagi setiap orang terutama bagi LGBT. Akan tetapi, hal ini harus dipertimbangkan kembali dalam asas ketuhanan yang mana Tuhan merupakan suatu esensi yang agung tentulah keberadaan-Nya diatas segalanya. Sebagai manusia yang merupakan ciptaan tuhan mewajibkan kita untuk mematuhi aturannya secara tidak langsung dan memahami secara alamiah apa yang menjadi hak dan kewajiban serta makna dari manusia itu sendiri.

LGBT ini sendiri sangat bertentangan dengan landasan negara Indonesia, yaitu Pancasila terutama pada sila pertama yang berbunyi: “Ketuhanan Yang Maha Esa.” Hal ini didasarkan karena manusia yang merupakan ciptaan tuhan yang telah diciptakan sebaik-baik rupa, dengan identitas yang jelas antara pria dan wanita, dan diciptakan berpasang-pasangan sejak awal mula manusia itu diciptakan, akan tetapi hal ini dilanggar serta telah terjadi penyimpangan dengan adanya keberadaan LGBT ini. Selanjutnya pada Undang-Undang Negara Republik Indonesia Tahun 1945 yang merupakan landasan fondasi hukum di Indonesia. Dalam Undang-Undang Negara Republik Indonesia Tahun 1945 yaitu pada kata “DENGAN RAHMAT TUHAN YANG MAHA ESA” disini dapat terlihat adanya penekanan bahwasanya Indonesia merupakan negara yang berlandaskan kepada Tuhan dalam menjalankan negaranya, lalu disusul pada Pasal 29 ayat (1) yang berbunyi “Negara berdasar Ketuhanan Y.M.E” terjadinya penekanan moral ketuhanan dalam fondasi hukum di Indonesia, oleh karena itu secara tidak langsung baik itu negara dan masyarakat Indonesia berpegang teguh pada aturan agama yang dianut oleh setiap orang menurut kepercayaannya masing-masing.

Pada dasarnya pancasila merupakan Grundnorm atau norma dasar dalam terciptanya suatu aturan hukum dan hal ini menjadi landasan untuk selanjutnya dalam membuat Undang-undang lainnya. Tentu saja undang-undang di bawahnya tidak boleh bertentangan dengan norma dasar ini. Oleh karena itu, keberadaan LGBT sangat tidak sesuai dengan norma-norma dan nilai keluhuran di Indonesia.

Undang-undang Nomor 1 Tahun 1974 tentang Perkawinan pada Pasal 1 berbunyi: “Perkawinan ialah ikatan lahir batin antara seorang pria dengan seorang wanita sebagai suami istri dengan tujuan membentuk keluarga (rumah tangga) yang bahagia dan kekal berdasarkan Ketuhanan Yang Maha esa.” Lalu pada Pasal 2 ayat (1): “Perkawinan adalah sah, apabila dilakukan menurut hukum masing-masing agamanya dan kepercayaannya itu.”⁶ Dari aturan hukum tersebut tertera dengan jelas bahwa dalam suatu hubungan pernikahan yang diakui dalam berwarga negara di Indonesia adalah seorang pria dan seorang wanita, dan pernikahan dapat dilaksanakan menurut kepercayaan agamanya masing-masing, akan tetapi dengan jelas bahwasanya dalam setiap agama dengan jelas menolak LGBT karena tidak sesuai dengan kaidah syariat beragama. Oleh karena itu hal ini menjadi daya tolak ukur mengapa LGBT sangat sulit diberikan izin atau diperbolehkan untuk berada di Indonesia.

Disamping itu, juga terdapat pengaturan lainnya yang secara tidak langsung atau secara implisit mengatur tentang LGBT, salah satunya yaitu dalam Kitab Undang-Undang Hukum Pidana yakni tepatnya pada Pasal 292 dan Pasal 293 KUHP yang mana dimuat ketentuan bahwa larangan terhadap orang dewasa yang melakukan perbuatan cabul dengan orang lain sesama jenis kelamin yang diketahuinya atau sepatutnya diduganya belum dewasa. Berdasarkan pasal tersebut dapat diketahui bahwa belum ada penafsiran secara tersurat terkait dengan LGBT itu sendiri, namun saat ini terhadap pasal tersebut sering dilakukan interpretasi secara luas untuk menindak perilaku LGBT. Selain itu, terkait dengan LGBT ini juga diatur dalam Fatwa MUI Nomor 57 Tahun 2014 tentang Lesbian, Gay, Sodomi dan Pencabulan, yang mana pada fatwa ini merumuskan adanya LGBT merupakan suatu aktivitas yang diharamkan untuk dilakukan dan juga sebagai salah satu bentuk kejahatan.

Adapun untuk daerah Sumatera Barat pada dasarnya telah terdapat peraturan daerah yang secara tidak langsung berkaitan dengan LGBT, yaitu pada Peraturan Daerah Sumatera Barat No. 11 Tahun 2001 tentang Pencegahan dan Pemberantasan Maksiat. Walaupun peraturan daerah ini dibentuk pada tahun 2001. Namun, apabila dilakukan penafsiran maka adanya undang-undang ini telah mengatur beberapa norma yang berkaitan dengan LGBT. Pertama, pada Pasal 1 huruf d Peraturan Daerah Sumatera Barat No. 11 Tahun 2001 tentang Pencegahan dan Pemberantasan Maksiat yang mengatur bahwa, “Maksiat adalah setiap tindakan yang merusak sendi-sendi kehidupan sosial kemasyarakatan dan melanggar norma-norma agama dan adat, baik yang telah diatur oleh Peraturan Perundang-undangan atau belum.” Apabila ditelaah lebih lanjut, LGBT dapat digolongkan menjadi salah satu bentuk tindakan maksiat, yakni telah merusak sendi kehidupan sosial masyarakat, norma agama dan adat. Hal ini dapat dilihat dari adanya masyarakat adat minangkabau yang memegang teguh filosofi hidup, yaitu “adat basandi syarak, syarak basandi kitabullah”. Oleh karena itu, masyarakat adat minangkabau sangat menghormati dan melaksanakan nilai agama dalam kehidupan sehari-harinya. Walaupun belum diatur secara eksplisit dalam peraturan perundang-undangan namun munculnya LGBT ini tentunya telah dipandang sebagai suatu tindakan maksiat karena telah merusak sendi kehidupan sosial karena telah bertentangan dengan nilai adat yang bersendikan pada nilai agama.

Kedua, pada Pasal 1 huruf e Peraturan Daerah Sumatera Barat No. 11 Tahun 2001 tentang Pencegahan dan Pemberantasan Maksiat yang mengatur bahwa, “Perzinaan adalah hubungan seksual diluar ikatan pernikahan, baik dilakukan dengan suka sama suka, maupun secara paksa oleh salah satu pihak dengan adanya pemberian atau janji pemberian, baik dilakukan oleh yang berlainan jenis kelamin atau sarna.” Adapun pada pasal ini juga memiliki keterkaitan dengan LGBT, yaitu pada aspek hubungan seksual yang dilakukan oleh sesama gender. Yang mana sesuai dengan definisi dari LGBT itu sendiri menurut Swain dan Keith W. yang mengartikan LGBT sebagai suatu kelompok manusia yang mempunyai kepuasan berhubungan seksual sesama gender atau biseksual. Oleh karena itu, pada pasal ini turut mengatur bahwa adanya tindakan LGBT tidak hanya digolongkan pada perilaku maksiat tetapi lebih lanjut telah menjadi suatu perzinaan.

Adapun berdasarkan Pasal 3 Peraturan Daerah Sumatera Barat No. 11 Tahun 2001 tentang Pencegahan dan Pemberantasan Maksiat menjelaskan bahwa pembentukan pengaturan ini dengan beberapa tujuan diantaranya yaitu:

- Menerapkan prinsip dan filosofi: “Adat Basandi Syarak, Syarak Basandi Kitabullah”

Peraturan daerah dibentuk bertujuan untuk peraturan daerah ini dapat menjaga dan tetap mempertahankan berlangsungnya prinsip: “Adat Basandi Syarak, Syarak Basandi Kitabullah.”

- Melindungi masyarakat terhadap adanya berbagai bentuk kegiatan dan/atau perbuatan maksiat

Bertujuan agar dapat melindungi masyarakat dari perilaku atau tindakan masyarakat yang bertentangan dengan nilai agama ataupun nilai adat yang pada akhirnya dapat menimbulkan ketidakseimbangan di tengah masyarakat.

- Mendukung penegakan hukum yang optimal terhadap ketentuan Peraturan Perundang-undangan yang berhubungan dengan kegiatan dan/atau perbuatan maksiat yang terjadi Pembentukannya bertujuan agar mendukung penegakan hukum dengan membentuk peraturan daerah yang menjadi salah satu landasan hukum yang digunakan dalam melakukan penegakan hukum terhadap pelanggar maksiat.

- d. Meningkatkan peran serta masyarakat dalam mencegah dan memberantas terjadinya serta meluasnya perbuatan maksiat

Dengan adanya peraturan daerah ini ditujukan agar dapat meningkatkan keterlibatan masyarakat secara langsung dalam melakukan pencegahan ataupun pemberantasan terhadap perbuatan maksiat. Banyaknya pendapat mengenai pelaku LGBT harus dikenakan pidana menimbulkan berbagai polemik. LGBT dapat digolongkan pada kriteria amoral yaitu perbuatan cabul LGBT, namun harus dapat memperhitungkan pembuktianya, definisi yang jelas, bagaimana penegakan hukum terhadap pelanggaran perbuatan cabul LGBT. Selain itu harus jelas sarana hukum lainnya yang dapat memberikan hasil yang lebih baik dalam mengatasi perilaku LGBT. Memperhatikan dari berbagai sudut pandang baik itu budaya, suku, adat, agama, bahkan hukum negara, LGBT tidaklah diterima keberadaannya di wilayah negara republik Indonesia ini, akan tetapi meskipun begitu masih belum ada aturan hukum yang menyatakan secara tegas serta mengimplementasikan dalam nilai masyarakat.

Dengan demikian, maka dapat diketahui bahwa pembentukan peraturan daerah ini tidak hanya untuk melakukan pencegahan atau pemberantasan maksiat tetapi juga terdapat tujuan-tujuan lainnya mulai dari penerapan: "Adat Basandi Syarak, Syarak Basandi Kitabullah," hingga meningkatkan peran serta masyarakat dalam melakukan pencegahan. Selanjutnya pada Pasal 4 Peraturan Daerah Sumatera Barat No. 11 Tahun 2001 tentang Pencegahan dan Pemberantasan Maksiat, menjelaskan bahwa "Pengaturan pencegahan dan pemberantasan serta segala bentuk perbuatan maksiat lainnya diatur lebih lanjut dalam Peraturan Daerah Kabupaten/Kota." Dalam hal ini, di Kota Pariaman telah membentuk Peraturan Daerah Kota Pariaman No. 10 Tahun 2018 tentang Ketentraman dan Ketertiban Umum yang menjelaskan secara langsung adanya istilah LGBT tersebut, yaitu pada Pasal 24 dan Pasal 25. Pada Pasal 24 Peraturan Daerah Kota Pariaman No. 10 Tahun 2018 tentang Ketentraman dan Ketertiban Umum mengatur bahwa, "Setiap orang dilarang berlaku sebagai waria yang melakukan kegiatan mengganggu ketentraman dan ketertiban umum."

Apabila dilihat dari aspek norma sosial dan budaya, tentunya bagi masyarakat di Sumatera Barat yang mayoritas memeluk agama islam sangat menentang LGBT yang telah jelas melanggar ajaran agama. Dikarenakan pandangan tersebut, adanya LGBT ini tentunya mendapatkan diskriminasi di tengah masyarakat yang pada akhirnya menciptakan lingkungan yang mulai tidak tenram.

2.2. Upaya Pemerintah Sumatera Barat dalam mengatasi Kasus LGBT yang marak terjadi di Sumatera Barat

Dalam menanggapi kasus LGBT pemerintah tentunya telah mengambil beberapa tindakan yang sekiranya mampu dalam mengatasi dan mencegah perilaku LGBT dalam lingkungan masyarakat, yaitu dengan: menambahkan jumlah tenaga kontrak Satpol PP untuk membantu operasi rutin pemberantasan maksiat, membentuk komisi penanggulangan AIDS, meningkatkan program keagamaan dan program penguatan keluarga melalui program 1821, melakukan sosialisasi tentang pergaulan bebas kepada masyarakat.

Pemerintah Provinsi Sumatera Barat telah melaksanakan berbagai langkah pencegahan terkait perilaku lesbian, gay, biseksual, dan transgender (LGBT). Adapun upaya yang sudah dilakukan oleh pemerintah Sumatera adalah:

1. Menegakkan Perda terkait LGBT dalam upaya pencegahan LGBT

Pemerintah Sumatera Barat telah menegakkan Perda yang akan menjadi dasar hukum dalam upaya pencegahan dan pemberantasan perilaku LGBT. Wakil Gubernur Sumatera Barat, Drs. H. Nasrul Abit, menyampaikan bahwa perda ini nantinya akan diterapkan hingga tingkat nagari melalui peraturan nagari untuk mencegah perilaku LGBT.

2. Membuat Peraturan Nagari

MUI Sumatera Barat berkeyakinan bahwa peraturan nagari bisa melindungi masyarakat dari berbagai praktik perilaku menyimpang, termasuk LGBT. Ketua MUI Sumatera Barat, Gusrizal Gazahar, menyatakan bahwa peraturan nagari memiliki "antibodi" yang kuat di tingkat akar rumput dan bisa membantu mencegah perilaku LGBT.⁷

3. Mempersiapkan Regulasi Gubernur

Pemerintah Sumatera Barat sedang mempersiapkan regulasi gubernur atau peraturan daerah terkait pencegahan dan penanggulangan perilaku penyimpangan seksual. Kepala Biro Kesra Setdaprov Sumbar, Al Amin, menyatakan bahwa regulasi ini sangat penting untuk menangani meningkatnya praktik penyimpangan di kalangan remaja.⁸

4. Mengadakan Pendidikan Seksual

Pemerintah Kota Pariaman telah menerapkan kebijakan untuk menanggulangi perilaku LGBT melalui pendidikan seksual yang tepat serta memberikan pengajaran yang positif kepada anak-anak. Tujuan dari kebijakan ini adalah untuk mencegah perilaku LGBT dengan memperkenalkan pendidikan seksual sejak dini di dalam lingkungan keluarga.

5. Meningkatkan Kesadaran Orang Tua

Ketua DPRD Sumbar mengimbau masyarakat, terutama para orang tua, untuk waspada terhadap perilaku LGBT dan mengambil langkah-langkah pencegahan dengan memberikan pendidikan seksual yang tepat kepada anak-anak. Ia menekankan bahwa orang tua harus menyadari bahwa LGBT juga mempengaruhi kalangan terpelajar dan mahasiswa, sehingga diperlukan upaya pencegahan.

Walaupun berbagai upaya telah dilakukan oleh pemerintah dalam menanggulangi keberadaan LGBT, pemerintah tetap memerlukan kerjasama antar berbagai pihak baik itu individu, komunitas maupun organisasi sosial.⁹ Oleh karena itu, kerjasama dan koordinasi antar pemerintah, masyarakat dan berbagai pihak lain sangatlah dibutuhkan dalam upaya menciptakan tercapainya keberhasilan memberantas

LGBT terkhusus di Sumatera Barat. Dengan berbagai upaya yang telah dilakukan pemerintah tentunya peran aktif masyarakat sangatlah diperlukan. Adanya LGBT di dalam lingkungan masyarakat merupakan suatu hal yang sangat mengganggu dikarenakan adanya pandangan masyarakat yang menganggap keberadaan LGBT ini sebagai suatu perilaku menyimpang baik dari segi agama maupun adat istiadat.

3. Penutup

3.1. Kesimpulan

- 1) Aturan hukum terkait permasalahan LGBT dan norma hukum yang ada di tengah masyarakat kota Padang yaitu terdapat pada (1) Sila pertama yang berbunyi “Ketuhanan Yang Maha Esa”. Hal ini didasarkan karena manusia yang merupakan ciptaan tuhan yang telah diciptakan sebaik-baik rupa, dengan identitas yang jelas antara pria dan wanita, dan diciptakan berpasang-pasangan sejak awal mula manusia itu diciptakan; (2) Pasal 1 Undang-undang Nomor 1 Tahun 1974 tentang Perkawinan; (3) Pasal 29 ayat 1 UUD 1945; (4) Pasal 292-293 KUHP; (5) Fatwa MUI Nomor 57 Tahun 2014 tentang Lesbian, Gay, Sodomi dan Pencabulan; (6) Pasal 1 huruf e, Pasal 2, dan Pasal 3, Peraturan Daerah Sumatera Barat No. 11 Tahun 2001 tentang Pencegahan dan Pemberantasan Maksiat, dan; (7) Peraturan Daerah Kota Pariaman No. 10 Tahun 2018 tentang Ketentraman dan Ketertiban Umum.
- 2) Dalam menanggapi kasus LGBT Pemerintah Provinsi Sumatera Barat telah melaksanakan berbagai langkah pencegahan terkait perilaku lesbian, gay, biseksual, dan transgender (LGBT). Adapun upaya yang sudah dilakukan oleh pemerintah Sumatera adalah: (1) Menegakkan Perda terkait LGBT; (2) Membuat Peraturan Nagari; (3) Mempersiapkan Regulasi Gubernur; (4) Mengadakan Pendidikan seksual kepada anak-anak; (5) Meningkatkan kesadaran orang tua di masyarakat.

3.2. Saran

Pemerintah harus secara konsisten mematuhi konstitusi dengan tidak mengakui perkawinan sejenis sesuai dengan Undang-Undang Perkawinan. Kebijakan ini merupakan respon tegas pemerintah terhadap diskusi yang sedang berlangsung tentang keberadaan komunitas Lesbian, gay, Biseksual, dan Transgender (LGBT) di Indonesia yang saat ini sedang menyoroti isu-isu dan mengadvokasi hak-hak mereka. Selain itu, pemerintah perlu meningkatkan perlindungan keluarga melalui program edukasi pranikah dan memperkuat fungsi BP4 (Badan Penasehat, Pembinaan, dan Pelestarian Perkawinan), serta berkolaborasi dengan organisasi keagamaan untuk memberikan pemahaman yang konstruktif mengenai LGBT.

Kisruh UKT Naik: Sistem Pendidikan Tinggi di Indonesia Dipertanyakan?

Penulis: Cherilla Izzata Putri Lubis

Local Chapter: Universitas Andalas

Kisruh UKT (Uang Kuliah Tunggal) telah menjadi isu yang hangat selama satu bulan terakhir. UKT merupakan sistem pembayaran biaya kuliah yang diterapkan oleh perguruan tinggi di Indonesia. Namun, saat ini telah terjadi kenaikan UKT secara tiba-tiba di berbagai universitas di Indonesia yang banyak menimbulkan pro dan kontra yang cukup signifikan. Isu ini menyentuh berbagai aspek, mulai dari kemampuan ekonomi mahasiswa dan keluarga, upaya peningkatan kualitas pendidikan, penyediaan fasilitas yang lebih baik bagi mahasiswa, hingga manajemen keuangan perguruan tinggi. Menteri Pendidikan, Kebudayaan, Riset, dan Teknologi (Mendikbudristek) menyatakan bahwa setelah bertemu dengan para rektor, Kemendikbudristek telah mengambil keputusan untuk membatalkan kenaikan UKT. Walaupun sudah ada keputusan tersebut, pernyataan ini dapat berubah sewaktu-waktu dan masih ada kemungkinan untuk menaikkan UKT di masa yang akan datang.

Dilansir dari Sokoguru, Dede Yusuf selaku Wakil Ketua Komisi X DPR, menyoroti bahwa kenaikan UKT ini tidak wajar. Ia curiga bahwa terdapat pemotongan subsidi pemerintah kepada Perguruan Tinggi Negeri Badan Hukum (PTN BH), sehingga membuat PTN harus mencari dana pendidikan secara mandiri, terutama melalui UKT. PTN mencari dana tersebut dengan menambah kuota jumlah mahasiswa atau membebankan UKT yang mahal. Ia menilai bahwa kenaikan UKT ini lebih dari 100% dan salah satu penyebabnya berkaitan dengan Peraturan Menteri Pendidikan, Kebudayaan, Riset, dan Teknologi (Permendikbudristek) Nomor 2 Tahun 2024 tentang Standar Satuan Biaya Operasional Pendidikan Tinggi (SSBOPT). Dengan adanya kenaikan UKT ini, maka akan memberikan dampak pada mahasiswa miskin maupun kelas menengah. Karena terdapat ketidaksesuaian antara UKT yang harus dibayarkan dengan kemampuan ekonomi mahasiswa dan keluarganya, terlihat jelas bahwa realitanya tidak sesuai dengan apa yang diatur. Berdasarkan peraturan tersebut, segala biaya pendidikan agar dikelola secara mandiri oleh kampus atau PTN.

Dalam Permendikbudristek Nomor 39 Tahun 2017 tentang Biaya Kuliah Tunggal pada Perguruan Tinggi Negeri di lingkungan Kementerian Riset, Teknologi, dan Pendidikan Tinggi, Pasal 1 angka 5 menyatakan bahwa biaya yang ditanggung setiap mahasiswa berdasarkan kemampuan ekonominya. Besaran UKT ditetapkan berdasarkan biaya kuliah tunggal dikurangi biaya yang ditanggung pemerintah. Besaran UKT yang diperoleh juga dibagi atas beberapa kelompok berdasarkan kemampuan ekonomi dari mahasiswa, orang tua mahasiswa, dan pihak lain yang membiayainya.

Akan tetapi dengan adanya kenaikan UKT berdasarkan Permendikburistek Nomor 2 Tahun 2024 tersebut, akan memberikan dampak pada mahasiswa miskin maupun kelas menengah. Mahasiswa banyak yang putus kuliah hingga terjerat pinjaman online (pinjol) demi membayar UKT yang setinggi langit. Hal tersebut menyebabkan sistem pendidikan tinggi di Indonesia dipertanyakan, bagaimana Indonesia dapat mewujudkan cita-cita Generasi Emas di tahun 2045 jika masih terdapat liberalisasi pendidikan yang dilakukan oleh pemerintah sendiri?

Jumlah masyarakat miskin di Indonesia masih sangat tinggi. Untuk dapat makan sekali sehari saja mereka sudah bersyukur, lantas bagaimana mereka bisa membayangkan suatu saat mereka dapat menyekolahkan anak-anaknya ke perguruan tinggi? Padahal dalam UU Nomor 20 Tahun 2003 tentang Sistem Pendidikan Nasional menegaskan bahwa setiap warga negara memiliki hak yang sama atas pendidikan baik itu dari golongan orang kaya maupun yang miskin. Tetapi, hal tersebut masih menjadi angan-angan belaka karena faktanya masih banyak kendala yang dihadapi oleh bangsa ini untuk mencerdaskan anak bangsanya.

Mimpi untuk mendapatkan pendidikan gratis belum terwujud hingga saat ini, pendidikan yang seharusnya dapat menjadi sarana untuk meningkatkan kualitas hidup masyarakat serta menjadi kesempatan bagi seluruh warga negara sebagaimana yang tertuang pada Undang-Undang Dasar 1945 Pasal 31 ayat 1. Jika kenaikan UKT dilakukan secara tiba-tiba, hal itu lalu bisa menghambat akses pendidikan dan kesenjangan sosial semakin banyak, serta nantinya sistem pendidikan tinggi di Indonesia semakin dipertanyakan karena tidak terjamin dan meratanya pendidikan bagi generasi penerus bangsa.

Harmony and Healing : Restorative Justice in Indonesia

Local Chapter: Universitas Diponegoro

A. Defining Restorative Justice: Principles, Goals, and Differences from Traditional Justice

Restorative justice represents a component of the criminal justice system that prioritizes the restoration of the victim and the reestablishment of equilibrium between the criminal act and its impact on society. Restorative justice is an implementation of the speedy trial principle, which emphasizes aspects of effectiveness, efficiency, and affordability, as well as affordable costs.¹ Restorative justice represents a critique of the conventional criminal justice process, which tends to prioritize the "punishment" aspect as the primary objective within the criminal justice system.² This approach tends to marginalize the perpetrators and victims of criminal acts, who are integral participants in the criminal justice process. The conventional criminal justice process emphasizes the law as a text and process, whereas restorative justice challenges this perspective.³

The fundamental premise of restorative justice is the restoration of victims who have endured harm as a result of criminal activity.⁴ This is achieved through a variety of measures, including the provision of compensation, the facilitation of peace, the involvement of perpetrators in social work initiatives, and the establishment of other agreements.⁵ In nature, the just in the restorative justice framework is not one-sided, impartial, arbitrary, or partial. It adheres to the applicable laws and regulations and considers the equality of compensation rights and balance in every aspect of life. The perpetrator is afforded the opportunity to participate in the restoration of the situation, the community is tasked with the preservation of peace, and the court is charged with the maintenance of public order.

The objective of restorative justice in the context of criminal law is to facilitate the empowerment of victims, perpetrators, families, and communities to repair the consequences of an offense. This is achieved by utilizing awareness and conviction as the foundation for improving social (the concept of justice is a multifaceted approach that encompasses the perspectives of various stakeholders.⁶ By viewing justice from multiple angles, we can improve social life by addressing the needs of victims, perpetrators, and society as a whole)

B. Restorative Justice in Indonesia

The implementation of restorative justice (RJ) in Indonesia can be observed through the mapping of regulations within the existing criminal justice system.⁷ These regulations can facilitate the application of RJ in alignment with its defining principles. In the context of current laws and regulations, circulars, decrees, and agreements between law enforcement in Indonesia, numerous rules utilize RJ terminology, often employing the term "restorative justice", including:

1. Law No. 11/2012 on the Juvenile Justice System, enacted on July 30, 2012
2. Memorandum of Understanding between the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Minister of Law and Human Rights, the Attorney General, and the Chief of Police on the ⁷ Indonesia Judicial Research Society. 2023. Opportunities and Challenges Implementation of Restorative Justice in the Criminal Justice System in Indonesia.

Implementation of the Adjustment of the Limits of Minor Crimes and the Amount of Fines, Rapid Examination Procedures, and the Application of Restorative Justice, approved on October 17, 2012.

3. Chief of Police Circular Letter No. SE/8/2018 on the Application of Restorative Justice in Criminal Case Resolution, passed on July 27, 2018.
4. Chief of Police Regulation No. 6 of 2019 on the Investigation of Criminal Offenses.
5. Attorney General Regulation No. 15 of 2020 on Discontinuation of Prosecution based on Restorative Justice.
6. Director General of The Public Justice of Indonesia, Reg. 1691/DJU/SK/PS.00/12/2020 on the Implementation of Guidelines for the Application of Restorative Justice, passed on December 22, 2020.
7. Prosecutor's Guideline No. 18 of 2021 concerning the Settlement of Case Handling of Criminal Acts of Narcotics Abuse through Rehabilitation with a Restorative Justice Approach as an Implementation of the Dominus Litis Principle of Prosecutors.
8. Regulation of the Indonesian National Police No. 8 of 2021 on Handling Crimes Based on Restorative Justice, passed on August 19, 2021.

These rules are still centered on a "case resolution" orientation, with the process being of secondary importance and the end goal being the primary focus. This implies that RJ is still limited in its orientation as a "goal or outcome" rather than a combination of "process and goal", which is what gives rise to the special note, such as the scope of application of RJ in these regulations also varies, for example in the scope of the police, and the courts,

RJ can be applied to narcotics offenses, while in the scope of the prosecutor's office it is not (only introduced later with the Prosecutor's Guidelines No. 18/2021). At the court level, RJ can only be applied to minor offenses (petty theft, petty embezzlement, petty fraud, in the Criminal Code), while the police and prosecutor's office also set different limits on criminal offenses.

C. Successful Restorative Justice in Indonesia

The practice of dispute resolution through the involvement of affected parties and the broader community, or what is known as justice restoration, has a long history in the Indonesian justice system. Indeed, the handling of disputes outside the formal justice process has been a common practice for much longer than the formation of the Indonesian state. This is due to the fact that the majority of Indonesia's population is neither urban nor secular, and thus the social values that are prioritized tend to emphasize personal relationships with characteristics of tolerance, communal solidarity, and avoidance of disputes.⁸

One of the successful restorative justice attempts in Indonesia is the Timber theft case in Badur, Sumenep. In March 2021, Atrawi ordered people to cut down the Chinese Albizia tree, commonly known as the sengon, located on the property of Jamik. Following the tree's felling, the wood was transported to Atrawi's residence for use in renovating his kitchen. Consequently, Jamik sustained a financial loss of approximately 3.5 million Rupiahs. After an extended period of time, the case was ultimately submitted for resolution through restorative justice by the East Java Prosecutor's Office and approved by the Deputy Attorney General for General Crimes of the Indonesian Attorney General's Office and has been returned to his family.⁹

⁹ Netra News. 2024. District Attorney Sumenep Settles Two Cases Through Restorative Justice. <https://www.netranews.co.id/2024/03/02/kajari-sumenep-selesaikan-perkara-dua-orang-melalui-restorative-justice>. Accessed on 3 August, 2024 (23.45).

The practice of forgiveness is exemplified by the tenets of restorative justice, which strives to facilitate a recovery process or achieve outcomes that restore the original state. Jamik, who is still related to Atrawi, was reluctant to allow the relationship within their family to become clouded by a seemingly inconsequential issue, namely the theft of a small wooden object. Consequently, discussions were conducted between the victim, the perpetrator, and the relevant authorities with the objective of identifying a mutually acceptable solution, namely restorative justice.

Such incidents occur with regularity throughout Indonesia. Given the country's cultural proclivity towards forgiveness, it is imperative that greater attention be paid to the resolution of legal disputes through the lens of restorative justice.

Summary

Restorative justice (RJ) represents an alternative approach to the criminal justice system that prioritizes the healing of victims and the restoration of social stability disrupted by criminal acts. In contrast to traditional justice, which places an emphasis on retribution, restorative justice aims to repair relationships and provide compensation through inclusive processes that engage victims, perpetrators, and the broader community. This method is distinguished by its dedication to efficacy, economy, accessibility, and the impartial administration of justice, with the objective of empowering all parties to address the ramifications of criminal acts. In Indonesia, restorative justice is gaining recognition and integration into the legal system through the enactment of various regulations. Notable legal instruments include Law No. 11/2012 on the Juvenile Justice System, several circulars and regulations from the Chief of Police, and guidelines from the Attorney General's Office. These legal instruments underscore the goal-oriented nature of RJ, yet the practical implementation continues to prioritize case resolution over a comprehensive integration of process and outcome. An illustration of restorative justice in Indonesia is the resolution of Sumenep's timber theft case in 2021. Atrawi, who engaged in the illicit felling of trees on Jamik's property, was responsible for a financial loss of 3.5 million rupiahs. The case was resolved through restorative justice, facilitated by the East Java Prosecutor's Office, which resulted in a reconciliation between the parties. This illustrates the efficacy of RJ in facilitating forgiveness and preserving familial harmony, reflecting Indonesia's cultural tendency towards resolution through mutual understanding and restoration.

A. Legal Introduction to Copyright

Copyright at its core, is a legal right granted to the creators of original works. The right to be protected morally and materially resulting from any scientific, literary, or artistic productions in which the person is its own creator (author) is established in Article 27 under the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights.¹ Through these rights, copyright grants the creator (a person behind a work) exclusive rights to control how their work is used. The primary purpose behind copyright law is to foster the creation and dissemination of works for the benefit of the public. By granting authors the exclusive right to authorize certain uses of their works, copyright provides economic incentives to create new works and to make them available in the marketplace.² This includes the right to reproduce the work, distribute copies, create derivative works (such as adaptations), publicly perform or display the work, and translate it. For example, the copyright protects a song through its melody, lyrics, and even its sheet music.

Creators also have the right to be recognized or opt to not be recognized for their works. To be recognized means the creator's name must be included or acknowledged in any use or distribution of the work. This recognition gives creators proper credit and a powerful incentive for innovation and creativity, as creators can reap the rewards of their efforts without fear of unauthorized use.³ In some cases, the creator may not want to be associated with a particular work. They have the right not to include their name and hence choose not to be recognized for their work.

Nevertheless, copyright only protects the tangible form of creations, meaning that ideas, procedural methods, concepts, or anything that is intangible or has not been expressed in any form of creation, are not subject to copyright. The United States legal doctrine regarding copyright recognizes this as the idea-expression dichotomy, whereas the distinction between "idea" and "expression" is fundamental to copyright law.⁴

The legal framework surrounding copyright varies by country, but some key principles are often shared. Most jurisdictions recognize automatic protection. As soon as a work is created and fixed in a tangible form (written down, recorded, etc.), copyright protection arises. Strong copyright protections ensure many purposes and benefits. For starters, it helps the economy by protecting industries that rely on intellectual property. It ensures industries thrive, drives economic growth, creates jobs, and promotes cultural and technological advancements.

B. Navigating Indonesia's Copyright Landscape

Indonesia, a nation brimming with artistic expression, has a well-defined copyright framework laid out in Law Number 28 of 2014. Not only the Copyright Law but copyright arrangements are also regulated more deeply and explicitly in various regulations such as Government Regulation Number 16 of 2020 concerning Recording of Creation and Related Rights Products and Ministerial Regulation Number 20 of 2021 concerning Management of Royalties for Copyright of Songs and/ or Music. It serves important purposes such as ensuring that creators and rights holders receive fair remuneration for the use of their works, ensuring their rights are recognized and respected, and providing legal certainty for all parties involved.

Copyright covers a wide scope of objects, ranging from science, art, and literature to computer programs. These various objects own exclusive rights to be protected morally and economically. Article 4 of Copyright Law states copyright as an exclusive right consisting of moral rights and economic rights. Moral rights refer to rights that are eternally inherent in the creator. A right to protect the creator's work integrity from being damaged if ever their work is misused.⁵ The protection is provided automatically when it has been realized in a tangible form that allows the duplication of the work. It applies indefinitely or during the term of copyright on the creation in question.

Whilst, economic rights are rights of creators or copyright holders to obtain economic benefits of the creation. This allows creators or copyright holders to do actions such as publication, reproduction, distribution, leasing, and many more towards their work as stated in Article 9 of Copyright Law. Any person who exercises the economic rights of the creator must obtain permission from the creator or copyright holder. They also should take into account the validity period of economic rights as it is different for each type of work. Article 58 of Copyright Law states creations that are valid during the life of the creator plus 70 years after the creator dies, whereas Articles 59 and 63 of Copyright Law states creations that are valid for 20 and 50 years.⁶

In this era where everything is technological, copyright infringement is increasingly vulnerable. A commercial use of copyright that harms the creator is considered copyright infringement and may be subject to civil suit or criminal prosecution, in accordance with Articles 96- 99 and 112- 119 of Copyright Law respectively.⁷ This includes taking action without the authorization of the creator or copyright holder and anything that is contrary to morals, decency, and public order.

C. Copyright Legal Dispute in Indonesia

At its heart, Indonesian copyright law adheres to the principle of automatic protection. Unlike some jurisdictions where registration is necessary, Indonesian law recognizes copyright as soon as a creative work is expressed in a tangible form. This approach simplifies the process for creators, allowing them to benefit from protection without additional bureaucratic hurdles. The law further emphasizes the importance of creators' rights. It defines copyright as the exclusive rights granted to creators of "authorship works" as mentioned in Article 1 of Copyright Law.⁸

One of the cases and legal disputes regarding copyright in Indonesia is the plagiarism dispute of Indonesia TikTok content creator Ricodwichey or known as Rico Dwi Cahyono. He was accused of claiming his artworks as a result of his own thoughts, when in fact he cheated on other people's work. The case gained public attention after a TikTok account named @dopackinginjun aka Jack re-uploaded a video showing Rico recognizing his own work, Timun Mas, and showed dissatisfaction as his work was completely plagiarized. Netizens also found allegations that some of Rico's painting content for endorsement was plagiarizing the work of foreign artists. A long thread on X related to the allegedly plagiarized works appeared, accusing Rico of redrawing without permission, giving credit to the creators nor claiming inspiration from other people's work.⁹

This is certainly contrary to all aspects related to copyright. It is written in the Copyright Law in Article 40 paragraph 1 letter F and Article 113 that plagiarism of images is not allowed, let alone used for commercial purposes, as he could be subjected to criminal prosecution. Due to Rico's student status, the campus questioned him further regarding the dispute and gave him sanction of repeating his courses. Rico was also required to attend an off-campus party to resolve the issue. He had deleted most of his uploads on various social media and left an apology video addressed to the aggrieved parties.¹⁰ Plagiarism cases like these highlight the importance of originality and ethics in content creation on social media platforms.

To prevent similar things from happening, the government must take action to prevent such things from happening severely. They must strengthen strict supervision of the creation and dissemination of copyright-infringing content by involving various parties, both domestic and foreign, in handling copyright infringement cases. In addition to that, they must take legal action with sanctions that can provide a deterrent effect and uphold the rights of creators. For example, using Digital Rights Management (DRM) systems and anti-piracy measures that are still utilized by Indonesia to ensure that their work is not distributed freely without their consent. By setting clear rules, copyright laws protect creators and promote a fair digital environment where users can legally and ethically access a wide range of content.¹¹

Copyright is a legal right granted to creators of original works, allowing them exclusive control over how their work is used, such as reproduction, distribution, and creation of derivative works. Copyrights give protection against unauthorized use of original works, revoking rights when necessary. One such example is Indonesia, with its vibrant artistic scene, which has a comprehensive copyright framework outlined in Law Number 28 of 2014, supporting and promoting creativity.

Covering a wide range of objects, each of them has exclusive moral and economic protection with its own validity period of copyright protection. All of these are regulated in the Copyright Law, with additional regulations for royalties and criminal sanctions for infringement. Copyright infringement is a significant concern, leading to criminal prosecution or civil suits for unauthorized use that harms creators. Hence, the government must strengthen supervision and take legal action to prevent and deter copyright infringement, protecting the rights of creators.

Indonesia's Copyright Law grants exclusive rights to creators or recipients, enforcing automatic protection upon expression of creative works in tangible form. It empowers creators to control the use and dissemination of their creations, ensuring recognition and benefits for their exclusive rights for authorship works like reproduction, distribution, derivative works, and translation. With technology advancements and widespread internet use, copyright is essential for creators to maintain the value of their work and earn a living. Furthermore, copyright law benefits the economy by protecting industries reliant on intellectual property, driving economic growth, job creation, and cultural and technological advancements.

Deep State: Bypassing Checks and Balances Mechanisms Within a Democratic Country

A. The Definition of Bypassing Checks and Balances Mechanism Within a Democratic Country

The checks and balances mechanism in Indonesia was established at the same time as changes were made to the state's institutional structure which is no longer subordinate as a result of amendments to the 1945 Constitution. With amendments to the 1945 Constitution from the perspective of separation of power which is linked to Article 24 paragraph (2) of the 1945 Constitution, the institutional system in Indonesia was renewed from a simple distribution of power to a stronger, clearer separation of power. Such reforms were meant to ensure that the many government institutions could work more independently and prevent any one institution or individual from gaining too much power as shown in Indonesia's "new order" period. There are three types of branches of state powers, namely legislative, executive and judiciary which later became known as Trias Politica. Trias Politica is the assumption that state power consists of three types of power: First, legislative power or law-making power (in new terms often called rule-making function); second, executive power or law-implementing power (rule application function); and the third is judicial power or the power to prosecute violations of the law (rule adjudication function). Trias Politica is a normative principle that these power functions must not be handed over to the same person/institution to prevent abuse of power by those who are strong.

Unfortunately, the separation of powers was still not enough to stop the separated bodies of power in Indonesia from colluding with each other for personal, political, or group benefits, and agenda. As such, the existence of a checks and balances mechanism is required in each state institution to monitor and balance the activity of the other state institutions. This is in accordance with the ideals of reformists towards the 1945 Constitution from 1998 till 2002 for the sake of creating an accountable state administration, free from arbitrariness and collusion.¹

The theory of separation of powers and division of powers state and power stems from the idea that in a government if three branches of powers are carried out by one person/state institution, then its power will tend to be absolute, and when a government has absolute power, there is a greater inclination to commit arbitrary acts. This is in accordance with the theory put forward by Lord Acton who states “power tends to corrupt but absolute power corrupts absolutely”. Checks and balances are the mechanisms that distribute power throughout a political system – preventing any one institution or individual from exercising total control. The checks and balances mechanism in the process of forming laws has a positive impact, namely preventing domination and arbitrariness by an institution and negative, namely not finding agreement in negotiations, which has an impact on the formation and termination of law making. process. This research analyzes the implementation of the checks and balances mechanism between the legislative and executive institutions in the formation of laws and whether the checks and balances mechanism is realized between the legislative and executive institutions in the process of forming laws. The words ‘checks’ and ‘balances’ are typically used together, but can be thought of as referring to subtly different (though overlapping) things. Checks are the mechanisms that allow political institutions to limit one another’s power – for example by blocking, delaying, or simply criticizing decisions. Balances, meanwhile, ensure that a wide variety of views and interests are represented in the democratic process. This includes structures like federalism

or broader features of democratic functioning such as the existence of multiple political parties.²

B. Evaluation and Challenges in Implementing The Checks and Balances Function in a Democratic Country

Without the existence of a checks and balances system within a governmental institution, a small group of people with immense wealth and influence can directly hinder the government's ability to generate policies that are healthy for a democratic country. They usually do this by doing "solids" to the elected heads of government such as giving them money, protection, as well as the political influence which these heads of government themselves need to ensure that they stay on the seat of power for as long as they can. The individuals colluded and created an illegal symbiotic mutualism that hugely benefits themselves. These small groups of people combined are what many in the West called deep states, a government within a government built on the basis of oligarchy (government by those with power, strength, and influence) instead of democracy (government by the general population).³

In Indonesia, the high costs of political campaigns mean government seat candidates need a lot of money in order to run for a democratic seat in the government. If said government candidates do not have the financial background and or influence necessary to run as a candidate, they would usually try to seek out funds and influence from donors with said influence and power to help them run for an elected seat. One case that can be taken is a form of money politics that often occurs, namely giving political dowries to parties. This practice will damage democracy, and produce incompetent and corrupt leaders and representatives of the people. A political dowry is an amount of money given by a person or institution to a political party or coalition of parties in the process of nominating people's representatives or leaders such as governors, regents, mayors, even president and vice president.

From this understanding, this type of money politics occurs at the nomination stage by the party, the dowry giver can be anyone, both internal and external.⁴ After the candidates have been elected with the help of their donors, the donors would then ask for the return of favor in the form of money and or the making and enforcement of policies that would benefit said donors. This act of elected governmental heads who tried to repay their donors is the reason why an elected government body often makes questionable decisions in solving domestic issues. In other words, the government bodies of Indonesia were often preoccupied with paying back what they owed to their donors through corruption, nepotism, and collusion instead of actually focusing on solving national issues both in the domestic and international scope.⁵

To mitigate such issues, in a democratic country, checks and balances play two key roles. First, they limit the power of the majority to act without regard to the views or interests of others. They ensure that the perspectives of those who are in the minority on a given issue are represented for example, by guaranteeing that opposition voices are heard in the process of law-making. Second, at a more practical level, they ensure that policy is tested and behavior is supervised. This helps to improve the quality of decision-making and prevent behavior that might threaten the integrity or reputation of the political system.⁶ The decline in the rule of law means serious and ongoing violations of human rights. However, a well-executed dismantlement of the rule of law and the constitutional checks and balances can happen, at least in its crucial initial stages, without overt human rights violations.⁷

C. How Can Checks and Balances Be Safeguarded?

The checks and balances mechanism in the process of forming laws has a positive impact, namely preventing domination and arbitrariness by an institution and a negative, namely not finding agreement in negotiations, which has an impact on the formation and termination of the law-making process. Checks and balances play a vital role in a modern democracy. They prevent power from being concentrated too much in one part of the governing system and help to avert the problems that can arise when decisions are taken without proper scrutiny or when high standards of behavior are not enforced.

The DPR as a legislative institution holds the power in forming laws, but in the process of forming laws the president as an executive institution must be involved, especially in the process of discussing bills until mutual agreement is obtained. Approval from the President still plays a role in taking a stance and controlling the implementation and discussion of the Bill so that it reflects the realization of checks and balances between the DPR and the President. The checks and balances mechanism between the legislative and executive institutions in the formation of laws can be implemented even if there is no veto right from the President⁸. The executive has a particularly important part to play in safeguarding checks and balances by engaging with parliamentary scrutiny, behaving appropriately toward the courts and the civil service, and respecting regulators.⁹

Nonetheless there can be drawbacks associated with checks and balances when they are particularly strong. Because they make unilateral action more difficult and allow a greater range of actors to participate in governing, strong checks and balances can increase the risk of gridlock. When designing checks and balances it may therefore be necessary to find a middle ground. This hence focuses on the key institutions that check and balance executive power at a Democratic Country :

1. Parliament
2. The Courts
3. Impartial Officials
4. Media and Civil Society.

Indonesia is a democratic country that implements a Checks and Balances system. The application of the principle of checks and balances is necessary to ensure that there is no overlap between existing authorities. Based on the principle of legal supremacy, the control system in question is a judicial control system. With this checks and balances mechanism, each state institution can monitor and balance the authority of other institutions. This is in accordance with the ideals of reform and the constitution, the 1945 Constitution, in order to realize state administration that is far from arbitrariness and accountability.¹⁰

One of the ways to safeguard these checks and balances is with Countervailing Institutions, which are governmental and non-governmental institutions that balance the distribution of power between the branches of government and ensure that popular priorities are regularly and consistently included in decision-making. They encompass what are traditionally understood as ‘checks and balances’ within the formal structures of government (between the executive, legislative, and judicial branches). However, they did something more important, namely focusing more on the balance of power between society and the government rather than the distribution of power within the government.¹¹

The quality of the democratic system will be maintained when electoral competition involving political parties takes place within the corridors of the rule of law and produces leaders who place public accountability and responsiveness as the highest value in carrying out the people's mandate as a source of legitimacy and authority. Actors who compete in the electoral mechanism also have a responsibility to maintain quality democracy.¹²

SUMMARY

The checks and balances mechanism in Indonesia was established alongside amendments to the 1945 Constitution, aiming to create a clear separation of power among state institutions to avert any single entity from gaining too much power. The point of power separation is to limit each governmental institution's power, allowing them to exercise checks if one of them were to act unaccordingly with the law and ensure diverse views are represented in the democratic process. Despite these reforms, governmental institutions often collude for personal or political gains. Such acts of collusion can be seen today as the recent high costs of political campaigns in Indonesia drove many political candidates to form connections with non-elected groups of people with immense wealth and influence (thus creating deep states). Such acts threaten to dismantle and bypass the existing checks and balances systems by allowing a non-elected entity to manipulate government policies for their own benefits, necessitating reforms to further strengthen the mechanism to ensure accountability and prevent Arbitrariness actions within the elected government. While strong checks and balances can prevent unilateral use of power and ensure high standards of behavior, they can also lead to gridlock and protection of vested interests. Therefore, finding a balance is crucial. To safeguard checks and balances, it is vital for the executive branches of the government (the most active of all the government branches) to respect regulators rights, parliamentary scrutiny, the judiciary, civil services and impartial officials. Undermining these mechanisms risks infringements on the political system and erodes public confidence.

Abstrak

Berkembangnya cryptocurrency merupakan suatu inovasi di bidang finansial yang sedang ramai diperbincangkan saat ini, yang mana hal tersebut turut memberikan kemudahan dalam bertransaksi. Dengan menggunakan teknologi blockchain dan sistem peer to peer, cryptocurrency membuat para penggunanya dapat bertransaksi secara global, anonim, dan tanpa melalui pihak ketiga. Namun, dengan segala kemudahan dan sifat anonimitas yang dimilikinya, cryptocurrency menjadi peluang bagi pihak-pihak yang tidak bertanggung jawab dalam melakukan kejahatan pencucian uang. Hal tersebut merupakan isu krusial yang saat ini tengah menjadi perhatian negara-negara di dunia untuk memberantas pencucian uang melalui cryptocurrency. Oleh karena itu, perlu adanya regulasi, pengawasan, dan kerja sama yang lebih kuat dalam memitigasi tindak pidana pencucian uang melalui cryptocurrency.

Kata kunci: cryptocurrency, pencucian uang, regulasi, pengawasan, kerja sama.

PENDAHULUAN

I. Latar Belakang

Menuju revolusi industri 5.0, kecanggihan teknologi menawarkan kemudahan di berbagai sektor, salah satunya sektor finansial. Hal tersebut membuka peluang terhadap perdagangan, investasi, dan transaksi global. Namun, di balik kemudahan yang ditawarkan, terdapat celah yang dapat dimanfaatkan oleh pihak-pihak yang tidak bertanggung jawab untuk melancarkan modus kejahatan baru, salah satunya pencucian uang. Perkembangan cryptocurrency semakin memperkeruh suasana tersebut. Berdasarkan data dari Chainalysis, kejahatan cryptocurrency menunjukkan angka yang cukup besar pada tahun 2023, yang mana terdapat terdapat 24,2 miliar US Dollar transaksi yang diterima melalui alamat terlarang.¹

Karakteristik cryptocurrency yang bersifat anonimitas, mudah dijangkau secara global, waktu transaksi yang fleksibel, serta transaksi yang sulit diakses oleh otoritas penegak hukum membuka peluang bagi pihak-pihak yang tidak bertanggung jawab untuk menggunakan sebagai media pencucian uang.² Hal tersebut tentunya menjadi kekhawatiran utama karena dana yang diperoleh dari berbagai kegiatan ilegal dapat disamarkan sedemikian rupa agar terlihat sah dan legal. Maraknya tindak pidana pencucian uang (TPPU) melalui cryptocurrency merupakan isu krusial yang menjadi perhatian global saat ini sehingga perlu adanya upaya kolektif dalam mengatasi permasalahan tersebut. Sebagai salah satu negara anggota Asia Pacific Group on Money Laundering sejak tahun 2000,³ Indonesia memiliki peran yang cukup besar untuk turut menanggulangi maraknya TPPU cryptocurrency melalui serangkaian upaya yang diperlukan.

II. Analisis

A. Status Quo Pengaturan Cryptocurrency dan Penanggulangan TPPU di Indonesia

Berdasarkan Pasal 1 Peraturan Menteri Perdagangan Nomor 99 Tahun 2018 tentang Kebijakan Umum Penyelenggaraan Perdagangan Berjangka Aset Kripto (Crypto Asset) yang mengacu pada Undang-Undang Nomor 10 Tahun 2011, saat ini aset kripto ditetapkan sebagai komoditi yang dapat dijadikan subjek kontrak berjangka (komoditi berjangka) dan diperdagangkan di bursa berjangka. Aset kripto tersebut bukanlah mata uang yang sah dan tidak bisa dipergunakan sebagai alat pembayaran karena hal tersebut bertentangan dengan ketentuan Pasal 1 ayat (1) dan (2) Undang-Undang Nomor 7 Tahun 2011 tentang Mata Uang. Hal tersebut dipertegas oleh pernyataan dari Bank Indonesia melalui siaran pers pada tahun 2014 lalu serta Peraturan Bank Indonesia Nomor 18/40/PBI/2016 bahwa segala virtual currency bukanlah mata uang dan alat pembayaran yang sah di mata hukum.⁴ Kemudian, pengaturan terkait pembinaan, pengawasan, serta pengembangan aset kripto di Indonesia pada saat ini berada di bawah wewenang Kepala Badan Pengawas Perdagangan Berjangka Komoditi (Bappebti).⁵

Pengaturan terkait cryptocurrency sebagai komoditas di Indonesia cukup berbeda dengan Amerika Serikat, Kanada, dan juga Australia, yang mana ketiga negara tersebut mengatur cryptocurrency sebagai komoditas, sekuritas, maupun nilai yang dapat mengantikan mata uang. Hal tersebut dapat dilihat melalui tabel perbandingan berikut:

⁴ Farrel Christian Sioe dan Putu Edgar Tanaya, ‘Regulasi Hukum Cryptocurrency dan Pencegahan Tindak Penyalahgunaannya di Indonesia’ (2024) 12(6) Jurnal Kertha Semaya 1375, 1379.

⁵ Pasal 2 Peraturan Menteri Perdagangan Nomor 99 Tahun 2018 tentang Kebijakan Umum Penyelenggaraan Perdagangan Berjangka Aset Kripto (Crypto Asset).

Tabel I: Pengaturan cryptocurrency di Amerika Serikat, Kanada, Australia, dan Indonesia.⁶

Penetapan cryptocurrency	Amerika Serikat	Kanada	Australia	Indonesia
Komoditas (crypto-asset)	Mengatur	Mengatur	Mengatur	Mengatur
Sekuritas (token ICO)	Mengatur	Mengatur	Mengatur	Belum diatur
Nilai yang menggantikan mata uang (cryptocurrency)	Mengatur	Mengatur	Mengatur	Dilarang

Selain Peraturan Menteri Perdagangan Nomor 99 Tahun 2018, Indonesia juga turut mengesahkan beberapa peraturan turunan mengenai aset kripto, yaitu Peraturan Bappebi Nomor 2 Tahun 2019, Peraturan Bappebi Nomor 3 Tahun 2019, Peraturan Bappebi Nomor 5 Tahun 2019, Peraturan Bappebi Nomor 6 Tahun 2019, Peraturan Bappebi Nomor 9 Tahun 2019, dan Peraturan Bappebi Nomor 2 Tahun 2020. Sayangnya, peraturan-peraturan tersebut hanya mengatur mengenai penyelenggaraan perdagangan aset kripto sebagai komoditi berjangka. Terkait dengan penanggulangan TPPU cryptocurrency sejauh ini hanya diatur dalam Peraturan Bappebi Nomor 6 Tahun 2019. Peraturan Bappebi a quo hanya berisi petunjuk teknis bagi perusahaan-perusahaan perdagangan aset kripto untuk melakukan tindakan pencegahan pencucian uang semata tanpa adanya penerapan sanksi bagi pihak-pihak yang melanggarinya. Oleh karena itu, diperlukan adanya regulasi, pengawasan, serta penjatuhan sanksi yang lebih kuat dalam menanggulangi maraknya TPPU cryptocurrency.

B. Regulasi dan Supervisi Travel Rule, Anti Money Laundering, dan Prinsip Know Your Customer

Dalam memitigasi TPPU cryptocurrency, perlu adanya penyesuaian terhadap kebijakan pemerintah untuk ditetapkan. Jika mengacu pada beberapa ketentuan dari negara lain, Indonesia belum masih memiliki celah terhadap regulasi travel rule, anti money laundering, dan prinsip know your customer.

Ketiga hal tersebut perlu diterapkan oleh Pemerintah Indonesia untuk dapat mendeteksi adanya transaksi keuangan mencurigakan dalam cryptocurrency.

Travel rule akan membuat pelacakan dan perpindahan uang dari satu negara ke negara lainnya menjadi lebih mudah dengan memperlihatkan identitas pelaku transaksi cryptocurrency. Hal ini dapat diimplementasikan dengan membuat suatu badan khusus dari pemerintah yang akan melacak pergerakan uang tersebut, seperti halnya Amerika Serikat yang membentuk National Cryptocurrency Enforcement Team.⁷ Meskipun terdengar sulit dan kontradiktif dengan sifat anonimitas dari cryptocurrency itu sendiri, tetapi travel rule perlu untuk diterapkan untuk melacak dan melaporkan transaksi mencurigakan dalam cryptocurrency. Melalui travel rule, regulasi anti money-laundering (AML) dapat diterapkan dengan adanya data terkait perjalanan uang yang mana hal tersebut selaras dengan pendekatan follow the money. AML mewajibkan adanya suatu pelaporan atas transaksi antar pihak sehingga memudahkan pemerintah dalam mengidentifikasi adanya transaksi yang mencurigakan.

Setelah regulasi travel rule dan AML tersebut diterapkan, pemerintah juga harus mewajibkan setiap penyedia jasa cryptocurrency untuk menerapkan prinsip know your customer (KYC). KYC menerapkan pemverifikasian data pelaku transaksi sehingga datanya dapat terbaca di sistem pemerintah dan memudahkan pemantauan data transaksi. Identitas pelaku transaksi cryptocurrency harus dapat dibuktikan dengan keberadaan dokumen-dokumen pendukung. Kemudian, penyedia jasa cryptocurrency wajib meneliti kebenaran dokumen pendukung identitas pelaku transaksi cryptocurrency. Dokumen pendukung yang dimaksud seperti identitas yang dibuktikan melalui KTP, keterangan mengenai pekerjaan yang dibuktikan melalui NPWP, spesimen tanda tangan, dan tujuan dari transaksi untuk pelaku transaksi cryptocurrency perseorangan. Dokumen pendukung untuk pelaku transaksi cryptocurrency dari perusahaan yang diperlukan adalah akta pendirian perusahaan, izin usaha, spesimen tanda tangan dan kuasa kepada pihak-pihak yang mempunyai wewenang bertindak untuk dan atas nama perusahaan, keterangan sumber dana dan tujuan transaksi cryptocurrency.

C. Kolaborasi dengan Penyedia Jasa Cryptocurrency dan Instansi Terkait

Setelah adanya regulasi yang kuat, kerja sama dengan instansi terkait perlu dilakukan guna memperkuat penanggulangan TPPU cryptocurrency. Modus baru TPPU berbasis perlu untuk diawasi lebih lanjut. Namun, satu hal yang belum dapat dimaksimalkan adalah bentuk kerja sama antara pihak jasa penyedia cryptocurrency dengan pihak pemerintah guna mengawasi setiap transaksi yang dilakukan. Salah satu lembaga yang dapat menjalankan kerja sama dengan pihak penyedia jasa cryptocurrency untuk melakukan pengawasan terkait segala transaksi yang dilakukan oleh pihak penyedia jasa cryptocurrency dengan pelaku transaksi saat ini adalah Bappebti. Perlu diketahui, bahwa berdasarkan Keputusan Kepala Bappebti Nomor 01/BAPPEBTI/SP-BBAK/07/2023 pengawasan tersebut akan berpindah kepada Otoritas Jasa Keuangan (OJK). Hal tersebut merupakan salah langkah konkret guna mempermudah segala pengawasan dan penyelidikan jika adanya transaksi yang tidak wajar dalam jasa penyedia cryptocurrency.

Beberapa kerja sama lainnya adalah melakukan kerja sama dengan Bappebti guna memilih mana jasa penyedia cryptocurrency yang telah memenuhi syarat atau tidaknya sebagai jasa penyedia cryptocurrency. Setiap penyedia jasa cryptocurrency yang ingin mendaftarkan platformnya wajib memenuhi beberapa syarat agar dapat berjalan secara sistematis dan teregulasi dengan baik. Adapun, kerja sama lanjutan lainnya adalah melakukan kerja sama dengan Kementerian Komunikasi dan Informatika (Kominfo) untuk membatasi atau memblokir jasa-jasa penyedia cryptocurrency yang tidak terdaftar dalam Bappebti. Kerja sama tersebut guna menekan adanya tindak pidana pencucian uang melalui platform-platform yang ilegal. Dengan demikian, pada transaksi yang dapat dilakukan oleh para pelaku transaksi adalah melewati jasa penyedia cryptocurrency yang telah terdaftar dan teregulasi, dan nantinya setiap transaksi yang dilakukan mendapat pengawasan oleh OJK.

PENUTUP

III. Kesimpulan

Digitalisasi keuangan menemui tantangan dalam hal maraknya pencucian uang melalui cryptocurrency. Di Indonesia, cryptocurrency sendiri bukanlah mata uang maupun alat transaksi, melainkan komoditas. Indonesia masih memerlukan beberapa regulasi baru guna menanggulangi TPPU melalui cryptocurrency. Travel rule menjadi langkah pertama dalam pembuatan regulasi ini, yang mana pemerintah perlu mengetahui data dari transaksi yang dilakukan oleh pelaku transaksi. Kedua, penguatan regulasi anti money laundering akan membantu pemerintah dalam mengawasi dan melaporkan transaksi mencurigakan dalam cryptocurrency. Ketiga, penerapan prinsip know your rights untuk mendapatkan data konsumen dan perlindungan data.

Pemerintah juga perlu menjalin kerja sama dengan beberapa pihak terkait, seperti penyedia jasa cryptocurrency, Bappebti, OJK, dan Kominfo guna memperkuat supervisi dan mitigasi terhadap maraknya TPPU melalui cryptocurrency.

IV. Rekomendasi

Beberapa rekomendasi kebijakan yang dapat diimplementasikan oleh Pemerintah Indonesia dalam memitigasi TPPU cryptocurrency:

- 1) Penguatan regulasi terkait travel rule, anti money laundering, dan know your customer untuk memudahkan pemerintah dalam melacak transaksi cryptocurrency yang mencurigakan;
- 2) Kerja sama untuk melakukan pengawasan dan penanggulangan TPPU melalui media cryptocurrency;
- 3) Penetapan Initial Exchange Offering (IEO) yang lebih adaptif di Indonesia sehingga membuat pasar cryptocurrency yang lebih teratur melalui adanya bursa cryptocurrency berdasarkan Keputusan Kepala Bappebti Nomor 01/BAPPEBTI/SP-BBAK/07/2023; dan
- 4) Pembentukan satgas khusus dalam memitigasi, mengawasi, dan menanggulangi transaksi cryptocurrency di Indonesia.
