Greetings from

PRESIDENT OF ALSA INDONESIA

Assalamualaikum Wr. Wb.,
Om Swastyastu,
Shalom,
Namo Buddhaya,
Warm regards to all,

It is with profound gratitude that we acknowledge the blessings of God Almighty, who grants us health and prosperity, empowering us to grow within the beloved family of Asian Law Students' Association (ALSA) National Chapter Indonesia. This organization has become an excellent medium for personal and professional development, offering every member the platform to serve and impact society, our nation, and the wider world. Guided by our four foundational pillars—academically committed, legally skilled, socially responsible, and internationally minded—we advance dynamically to create meaningful, wide-reaching benefits.

We firmly believe that our mission's success is best achieved through collaboration. In line with this vision, it is our pleasure to present the ALSA National Chapter Indonesia Company Profile for 2024/2025. Through this profile, we aim to convey our alignment with your organization's vision and mission, demonstrating our commitment to fostering impactful partnerships that will lead to shared success. ALSA Indonesia is uniquely positioned to be a strategic partner, bringing values, strengths, and expertise that will support the realization of our mutual goals.

May ALSA Indonesia continue to create a positive impact, contributing to the progress of Indonesia, Asia, and the global community as a whole.

Wassalamualaikum Wr. Wb.,
Shalom,
Namo Buddhaya,
Om Shanti, Shanti, Shanti Om!
May ALSA, Always be One!

Delvino Ahmad Hidayat Lolianto

President of ALSA National Chapter Indonesia
2024-2025

ALSA INDONESIA'S MILESTONE

1989

Establishment of the ASEAN Law Students' Association in Jakarta.

1996

Inspired by the European Law Students' Association, Japanese law students decided to establish the Asian Law Students' Association in East Asian countries.

2001

The Seoul Declaration was issued, where ALSA Japan, ALSA Korea, ALSA Taiwan, and representatives from Peking University agreed to further discuss creating a regional law student network.

2002

The five founding ASEAN members (Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, and Thailand) proposed expanding ALSA's membership to advance its objectives.

At the Korean Conference and Asian Forum in Japan, merging with the ASEAN Law Students' Association was agreed upon by members from East Asian countries and ASEAN members.

The Tokyo Agreement was signed on 7 September 2002, marking the decision to unify into a single association.

2003

On 23 October 2003, a resolution was passed unanimously in Bangkok by all member associations —ASEAN Law Students' Association, ILSA PKU, LA, HKUSU, ALSA Japan, ALSA Korea, and ALSA Taiwan—officially merging into one unified ALSA.

2003- Present

Continuous growth and establishment of 15 local chapters across Indonesia, with significant contributions to ALSA's and Asian Law student development.

OUR VISION

“Enhancing a More Synergistic ALSA Indonesia: Actively Contributing to an Organization Based on Data, Science, and Participation.”

OUR MISSION

1

Fostering a Spirit of Unity within ALSA Indonesia;

2

Improving Optimal and Active Organizational Governance;

3

Promoting a Data-Oriented Organizational Development Spirit;

4

Enhancing the Academic Sector for All Members and the Community, both Intensively and Extensively; and

5

Encouraging Active Participation in the Development of the Nation and the State.

OUR INTERNATIONAL EVENTS

ALSA FORUM
